Reports

President's Report by Dr. Rosado: Annual review to include website creation, twitter account, presentation postings.

Treasurer's report by Dr. Wedemeyer:

2016 meeting in the red due to low attendance

2017 meeting in the black to date with several receipts and Friday night debit forthcoming

The organization has an EIN and is considered a non-profit.

New business

Dr. Rosado will be vacating office of president by December 2017.

Nominations for partial (2018-19) term were sought, and Dr.

Rosado nominated Ryan Livengood. Dr. Livengood initiated discussion on whether or not president would more conveniently live in Morgantown. Absent nominations or volunteers from Morgantown, the action was deferred to email following meeting.

Next WVAP annual meeting to occur in fall of 2018, date TBD based on WVU football by-week. Follow website and twitter for announcement.

Special recognition

President Rosado recognized Dr. Gerald Wedemeyer for service as WVAP treasurer. Recognized Dana Gray and Cheryl Baker-Stasiak for much work in preparation and execution of this year's meeting among other things.

Respectfully submitted – Ryan Livengood, M.D.
